

Byrne JAG - Competitive

Total Funding Available: $225 million

Applications due April 27, 2009

Overview: Competitive grants to units of State, local, and tribal government, and to national, regional, and local non-profit organizations to prevent crime, improve the administration of justice, provide services to victims of crime, support critical nurturing and mentoring of at-risk children and youth, and for other similar activities.

How to Access Funding: Solicitation, FAQ, and Fact Sheets will be released soon by the Office of Justice Programs. If municipalities plan to access this funding, they are encouraged to register with the Central Contractor Registration registrant database now, through www.grants.gov. Potential applicants need to obtain a DUNS (Data Universal Numbering System) number. A DUNS number is a unique number that identifies an organization and helps track the distribution of grant money. The CCR is a central repository of organizations working with the federal government.
