CityVision Virtual Summit – Part 2 Agenda

June 16th: Moving Forward in a Post-COVID 19 World | Learn about community economic development issues and economic forecasts and gain practical tools that cities and towns can use to prepare for rebounding and growth.

11:00 am -12:00 pm: Dr. Mike Walden, North Carolina State University
12:00 pm -1:00 pm: On-demand Lunch & Learns
1:00 pm – 2:00 pm: Panel Discussion, “Just Do It”
  • Assistant Secretary Kenny Flowers, Rural Economic Development, NC Department of Commerce
  • John Hodges, Assistant Town Manager – Development Services, Town of Garner
  • Audrey Whetten, Executive Director, Uptown Shelby
  • Julie Metz, Assistant Director of Business Development, NCLM

June 17th: Staying Connected in a Post-COVID 19 World | This day zeroes in on the pandemic’s impact on the continuity of operations and emphasizes ways cities and towns can leverage technology for increased resilience now and in the future.

11:00 am -12:00 pm: Attorney General Josh Stein, NC Department of Justice
  Secretary Tracy Doaks, NC Department of Information Technology
12:00 pm -1:00 pm: On-demand Lunch & Learns
1:00 pm – 2:00 pm: “Cybersecurity in a Post-COVID 19 World”
  • Pete Seeber, Chief Strategy and Risk Officer, CORVID Cyberdefense
  • Matt Reid, Risk Consultant, NCLM

June 18th: Leading Onward in a Post-COVID 19 World | Strong leadership is essential in times of crisis. Learn about upcoming leadership challenges as well as ways to build upon and incorporate best practices into your existing skillset.

11:00 am -12:00 pm: Director Mike Sprayberry, NC Emergency Management, NC Department of Public Safety
  “Leading and Managing in an Era of COVID-19”
  Dr. James H. Johnson, UNC Kenan-Flagler Business School
12:00 pm-1:00 pm: LIVE Lunch & Learn
  “Leading Through Crisis,” Rick Rocchetti, Rocchetti & Associates
1:00 pm -2:00 pm: “Perspectives on Leadership”
  Donald Gintzig, President and CEO, WakeMed Health & Hospitals